By Train

Amtrak serves cities throughout California and beyond with trains & thru-way shuttles. Discounts for AAA members and Student Advantage discount cards available for college students. More information can be found here.

Davis Amtrak Station

840 2nd Street, Downtown Davis

Accessible using Unitrans A Line from Silo Bus Terminal on campus. Unitrans will run special schedules around the holidays to accommodate students taking the train.

Unitrans routes and schedules can be found at: http://unitrans.ucdavis.edu/

Connections from Amtrak:

How to Get to BART:
- Take Amtrak to the Richmond station
- At the station, walk down the stairs from the Amtrak platform, walk through the station to the BART ticket machine
- When you are ready to board BART, take an escalator up to the BART platform.

How to Get to CalTrain:
- Take Amtrak to Emeryville where you can take a shuttle to San Francisco
- This option allows you to buy just one ticket for your entire journey. When making your Amtrak reservation, just use the station code “SFP” for the CalTrain stop.

Get a Ride Zimride

http://www.zimride.ucdavis.edu

Zimride is our online network for carpool matching exclusively for UC Davis students, staff and faculty to help you link up with other students traveling to the same hometown. Drivers can sell their empty seats and passengers can find an inexpensive ride out of town.
GETTING TO THE AIRPORT

SACRAMENTO AIRPORT

The Yolobus line 42 A is an easy way to get to the airport year-round. On the Wednesday before Thanksgiving Yolobus and Unitrans run additional Airport Shuttle Routes.

- Board either the Yolobus 42A or the Unitrans Thanksgiving Airport Shuttle at the MU Bus terminal
- Undergraduate students ride free with a valid student ID. Regular fares are $2 on Yolobus and $1 on Unitrans
- To return from the airport take the Yolobus 42B

SAN FRANCISCO AIRPORT

- You can take BART directly to the San Francisco Airport.
- Follow the instructions on the previous page to get to the Richmond BART station
- Take the BART Fremont train to the MacArthur station and transfer to the San Francisco Int’l Airport/Millbrae train
- The BART train arrives at the International Terminal at SFO. It’s a short walk to Terminal 3, but all domestic terminals (1, 2 & 3) are one to three minutes away on AirTrain.

OAKLAND AIRPORT

- Accessible by shuttle from the Oakland-Coliseum/Airport Amtrak station
- The AirBART shuttle costs $3 (cash only) and leaves from the street level adjacent to the Amtrak station.

BERKELEY BUS

http://fleet.ucdavis.edu/bus/schedule

This shuttle travels between the UC Davis and UC Berkeley campuses twice per day, Monday - Friday (excluding University holidays). The cost is $11 each direction and reservations are required. Reservations can be made online, up to two weeks in advance.

TO BART: The Berkeley Bus drops off on the edge of UC Berkeley campus, 2 blocks from Downtown Berkeley BART Station, from here you may travel to cities throughout the Bay Area.
